NOTE: This document is given to the Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services for the purpose of either junking the above described home of record or transferring title to the home on the records of the department.

Falsifying information given in this document could result in a fine of up to $10,000 and imprisonment for up to five (5) years, or both.

Eligibility

If a tenant moves from the premises and leaves a manufactured home, the landlord may dispose of the abandoned personal property in any manner that the landlord, in its sole discretion, determines appropriate. This statutory process has priority over any ownership or security interest.

To Verify Ownership

Wisconsin manufactured home – you may use form SBD-10752, Manufactured Home / Owner Record Information Request.

An online search can be performed here:

<http://dsps.wi.gov/sb/SB-Manufactured-Home-Search.html>

Another jurisdiction – contact the state where the home is currently registered.

Notify owners, tenants, and lien holders of record of intent to dispose of manufactured home

In addition to the notification to the tenant by general mail required by s. 704.05 (5), we suggest you also send written notice by certified mail, "Return Receipt Requested" to the owners, tenants, and any lien holder of record notifying them:

- the home will be sold if it is not claimed disposal, and
- of the home description by identification number, year, make, body length, and body width; and
- of the date, time, and location of a public sale
OR
of the date a private sale will be held.

Noncompliance

If the manufactured home is not claimed prior to the date stated in your notice, you may sell or otherwise dispose of it in accordance with the notice.

To sell the manufactured home

The manufactured home sale may be either public or private. An example of a public sale is an auction. A private sale would be the sale to a used manufactured home dealer without offering it to the public.

If the home is sold, furnish the buyer with this completed form indicating you are selling the manufactured home.

CAUTION: Be sure to retain a photocopy for your records.

To obtain a title for the manufactured home

(you or a buyer)

Submit:

- this completed form; and
- SBD-10687 (Wisconsin Manufactured Home Certificate Application) and applicable fees.

Note: A home sold and transferred as a result of this process does not require the previous owner's consent and will not show any previous liens.
